

MCT

MOLECULAR & CELLULAR THERAPEUTICS

Molecular & Cellular Therapeutics at RCSI
presents

The 2009 Hennessy Lecture

Mark Little

Presenter of the RTE current affairs programme
'Prime Time'

will deliver a lecture entitled

Could Obama happen here?

At 5.30pm in the Albert Lecture Theatre, RCSI

on

Monday 27th April 2009

Followed by a wine reception, 6.30pm, The Atrium, RCSI

Mark Little was RTE's first Washington correspondent and has covered every US election since 1994. He returned to Dublin in 2001 to take up the post of RTE's Foreign Affairs Correspondent before joining Prime Time in 2002.

Mark specialises in coverage of world affairs and was named TV Journalist of the Year in 2001 for his reporting from Afghanistan. He wrote and presented the documentary series Who's Afraid of Islam? (2006) and American Dream: Dead or Alive (2008). He is the author of three books, Turn Left at Greenland, Zulu Time and The New America, which has just been published.

RSVP: agrady@rcsi.ie